Good Afternoon Ms. Kim,

That is correct, 24 would be the backlog for December.

Hi Shannon,

Thank you for responding to my request. I have one quick follow up question.

If I want the backlog for December 2018, I would just use the number "24", as opposed to adding up all the numbers for each month, correct? Just wanting to make sure I'm interpreting the data correctly.

Thank you for your consideration,
Betsy
